I am going to cancel this week's meeting. I have attached the draft agenda with speakers for the workshop that we discussed with Ken Olden after revising it according to David Bussard's directions. It is different from what the team came up with so you might want to look it over. We will take it up again in January. We have submitted all the materials for the ICF contract and hopefully things will be in place by then so they can start exploring invited speakers.

Happy Holidays! Barbara and Andrew
